724

YALE BREAKING THROUGH THE LINE

GIRIDIRON CONFLICTS BRIEFLY REVIEWED

What the Various Teams Did in Last Week's Foot ball Games--- The Shipment of Famous Rancers to England Causes Alarm in Racing Circles---Dan Patch Performs Great Feat.

forms Great Feat.

By J. Micciller Leake.

By J. Micciller Leake.

The games plushout this country gridirons through the prises to the enthus brought many suffice of the game in all stastic followers. So The games of the game of the game were of its various phases. So The games of the game of the game were of its various phases. So The games of the game of the game of the game of the game were of its various phases. So The games of the game of the several men, who at a fee on the sick list, several men, who at a fee on the sick list, several men, who at a fee on the sick list, the light of the late of the late biocked pass, which was see by a Yale player,

The Harvard Eleven, p

Harvard did not play an it important game Saturday, their opponent its being the Springfield Training Schoot, they defeated easily by a big to 0. The Harvard team is fast to 0. The Harvard team is fast to 0. The Harvard team is fast to being into shape and looks goot the season ends.

Among the no-score tie gat lones are the ones between Williams and 1 Dartmouth, Minnesota and Nebrask Gil, Virnginia and Sewanee, and North Congg surginia and Sewanee, an L, which the Blacksburg boys world's by the narrow lead of one touchdets win, would seem to bear out the mornous but the Vanderblit score of 44 fbr 0 shows that either the Clemson eletheven is decidedly weaker than it usuafly48, is or that Vanderblit is decidedly strong than any other team in the South in Western Teams in Saurday's Gail, inc. Wisconsin defeated Indiana badsable to beat Illinois by a close sector of 11 to 6. Perdue snowed Monmou under to the tune of 20 to 0.

The Virginia college football game.

of II to 5. Perdue snowed Monmon under to the tune of 30 to 0.

The Virginia college football gamé resulted in some surprise, but for the most part the contests were wen to large scores. Washington and Loviking the Richmond College team by the Richmond College team by the score of 31 to 5. Randolph-Macon and William and Mary played a hard fought game in Petersburg, which the Ashland boys won by the narrow margin of one touchdown and the resulting goal. The Virginia Military Institute suffered their first leften of the scasson at the hands of the St. John's eleven, of Annahol's, by the merican League was 3,634,988, while the American League was 3,634,988, while the American League showed an warrange of 10 to 2. Hampden Sidney found an easy thing in their game with the Randolph-Macon Academy team, of Bedford City, winning easily, 15 to 0.

Another surprise to the followers of the pigskin batties was the result of Thursday's game between Georgetown and North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical College at Raleigh during the North Carolina State Pair. The heavy A afind M. Dunch was only able to score one touchdown against their lighter opponents.

Collin to Go to England.

The unbeaten Colin, James R. Keene's great racer, apd one of the best thoroughbreds ever foaled, with the ahipped to England by his owner this fall, probably in November. With Colin will be shipped Ballot, winner

Post-Scarlatinal

Nephritis.

In Renal Calculi.

Stone in the Bladder and Inflammation of the Bladder.

In Gout, Rheumatism and Uric Acid

Conditions.

ROYAL WELCOME FOR VARSITY SQUAD

Students Meet Football Team at Station---A Pleased With Work of Men in Sewanee Game.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 18.—That the Virginia student body was pleased with the outcome of yesterday's game with Sewance was evidenced by the fact that practically the entire college gathered at Union Station at 5 this afternoon to welcome the team upon its return. It being Sunday, the undergraduates confined their enthusiasm to one vigorous yell as the squad alighted.

Despite reports to the contrary, the men are in excellent condition, with n t a single one on the injured list. The frequent substitutions made were bring at least 400 for the game. The day will be made a partial holiday in the city, and the game will be seen by a large crowd. The contest will take place on the gridiron at the fair grounds.

day will be made a partial holiday in the city and the game will be seen by a large crowd. The contest will take place on the gridion at the fair grounds.

VIRGINIA'S TRACK TEAM

[Special to The Times-Diseatch.]

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA. October 18—As a result of the assertion that the University of Virginia grows originter, and brighter.

Showing how eld Eli uses her strong men to make holes in the defense of Dec opposents.

Showing how eld Eli uses her strong men to make holes in the defense of Dec opposents.

Showing how eld Eli uses her strong men to make holes in the defense of Dec opposents.

Showing how eld Eli uses her strong men to make holes in the defense of Dec opposents.

Showing how eld Eli uses her strong men to make holes in the defense of Dec opposents.

On strike this morning, fifty strong. They demanded an increase of 10 cents a round, and when they did not get it they left the green. Later seven were persuaded to return to work, among them the four grifs who caddy on these links.

As a result of the strike, the cidd members are doing their own caddy in grant the four grifs who caddy on these links.

V. P. J. AND W. & L.

Special to The Times-Disease, links and the defense of Deceromance any defining characteristic properties of the strike o

SUB-NORMAL HEART

Amusements.

BIJOU -- All Week Mats. Tues., Thurs., Sat JAMES D. BARTON & CO. PRESENT Through Death Valley

A Sterling Western Drama. Like "The Great Divide" and "The Squaw Man."

COLONIAI STARTING TO-DAY, Perfect Picture Performance:

Matinees, 2130, 3130 P. M. Night, 7130, 8130, 9130 P. M. 10c—ADMISSION—10c. Ladies and Children at Matinees, &c

THE MUSICAL AND SOCIAL EVENT OF THE SEASON.

And Her Splendid Company of Assisting Artists

ame nea	though the time was actually slower.	They demanded an increase of 10 cents	definite schedule, but the management In the ring or out of it. I never ge	2002
	The Leading Lady again lowered the	a round, and when they did not get it	intends to enter the usual indoor meets excited. I never worry, I never free	Tet et altenned	trotting record for a two-year-old, re-	they left the green. Later seven were	in Washington, Baltimore, Richmond Nothing bothers me, I'm cool and col	- 10
attooped u	ducing her mark from 2:11 1-2 to 2:07, which is a phenomenal speed	resulted to return to work among	etc., and are arranging a more exten- lected all the time. I guess that's who	hy
TE	performance for so young a horse.	them the four girls who caddy on	Sive outdoor season than any Virginia I'm not a human being.
.Ip		them the four girls who cauty on these links.	track and field team has heretolore "I said I was cold-blooded and tha
Importan		As a result of the strike, the club	ever attempted. my heart beats 40 sometimes, but members are doing their own caddy-	I the fire opportunity for the seddent mant to any that that heart is me of	olg
Gral, which	HILLRIII BLAIL	ing. There was a team match on with	body to get a fine on the new ma- as the heat teriows.	100
Vt round	39 1 U 22 C 1 C 2 C 1 C 1 C C 2 C 2 C 2 C 2 C	New Haven, and the strike made things
STATE OF THE REAL PROPERTY.		awkward. The caddles have been get-	will be held at Lambeth Field. Not game. All you get is: 'Oh, he was	-
	THE OHARADIONO	ting 15 cents a round.		md
			only the new men, but many of the prets, good guy, but he's down an stars of last year's team, led by Cap- cut now.' That's after your coin's a	all ar tiones ar		V. P. J. AND W. & L.	tain J. A. Rector, the fastest sprinter gone.
ar I Dart		onds, and circled the bases in 137-8 cross-country runners, is doing splen- seconds. Overall won the fungo hit- did work with the Crimson candidates	in America, have entered. Ribbons "Look at the fellows who spen
ele Gh, Vir		The state of the s	will be given for tital and second their tortunes on chartely and arece ski Warolin	CHICAGO, ILL., October 18 In an i	ting contest, 273 feet, and Hoffman for the team. When he first met the Next Saturday, threw the ball 338 feet. men and addressed them he said: "I [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]	places, and track and field records ward went broke. Did charity han big and sur	exhibition baseball game the Detroit	Score by innings: R. H. E. am coming here to do my utmost to LYNCHBURG, VA., October 18.—Much	broken in this meet will hold. them anything? It did-not. I'm goin
Wion	team, of the American League, to-day	Chicago 002000100-3 9 1 turn out a successful team this fall interest attaches here to the football	to save my little pile, and if there
rec delve	wan from the world's champion Chi-	Detroit 10 0 0 0 1 0 3-7 14 0 and put cross-country running on its contest to take place here next Satur-	HESSLER, OF BOANOKE	De CleCF mso	cago tham, of the National League, by	Batteries: Reulbach, Overall and feet in the university." It seems that day between Washington and Lee and	COPE TO DIRECTO CITY No.	he-unuss Lunii	a score of 7 to 3. Detroit made four-	Kling and Moran, Mullin, Winter and that is just what he is doing. More Virginia Polytechnic Institute. It is	Weisel to Cana was sight when h with DCIV. I	teen hits off Overall and Reulbach, who	Thomas. Umpire, O'Day. Time, 1:15. men are out now for this branch of said the Blacksburg institution will	AUBURN, N. Y., October 18 Secre- said no living being will ever knoc	els
s worco.	pitched for Chicago. Exhibitions of	athletics than have ever been out give a holiday on account of the	tary Farrell of the National Associa- the champion out.
uchdæts mo	base running, throwing and hitting		tion of Minor Leagues/ to-day an- "Well, to be honest with you," re	re-du o	were given by the players, Cobb, of Detroit, winning the bunt and run to	CAMBRIDGE, MASS. October 18.— will come here by special train to see	nounced that Player Hessler, of the turned Bat, "I can answer that in on	one on del- ve	1 riret base in 31.5 seconds. Cohe also	Alfred Shrubb, the famous runner and GIRLS STRIKE WITH CADDIES. the game. The students of Washington		my run flata	won the 100-yard dash in 10.2-5 sec.	holder of so many records, who has re- cently been made coach of the Harvard Wee Burn Golf Club caddles went out and if this can be secured, they will	had been drafted by the Buffalo Club, weight.	TELET
stron, ge	1 200 300 300 300 300 300 300 300 300 300	centry seen made touch of the Harvard (Wee Burn Golf Club caddles went out and it this can be secured, they will
Court in			was counted out, and I was out for
'a Gnul n	DEODE THE A B	T P AAA AAA G 4 TTT BE 4 TAB T TT 4 OTTE	seven days then. That was in a bicy
a bads-!!	TOTAL BLUE BO BE A PORT	OF ANGLED GRADER C'ARAF MAN HERD IN A FILE	cle factory in Hegewisch, Ill., in 189
caro w ra	IVEL PER LEGISTE	THE A COURSE OF SHEET SHEET SHEET SHEET SHEET	I was helping a blacksmith when 444
Ose sco	212 9 2 22 22	1 6 9 0 0 9 0 0 DLY AA TATLE OF THE TOTAL OF	Teuton drop-hammer caught me
ose sco		N 7,000,000 SAW MAJOR LEAGUE	down places They thought I we	a donmou	The greatest baseball season in the	1907 while due / market from the contract of t	Cincinnati Cleveland and Pittshurg dozen places. They thought I wa	a vas
II game	The greatest baseball season in the	1907, while five American teams show- The Chicago Nationals proved to be American League, with an average of	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg, dead. It took about ninety stitches	a ras ill games	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just	1907, while five American teams show- The Chicago Nationals proved to be American League, with an average of ed increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleve-the hast drawing team on the road 7.847 to a game. Cleveland was sec-	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American sew up the wounds. I was in the hosew up the wounds. I was in the hosew	ras to os-
III gamae	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just	1907, while five American teams show- The Chicago Nationals proved to be American League, with an average of ed increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleve-the hast drawing team on the road 7.847 to a game. Cleveland was sec-	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American sew up the wounds. I was in the hosew up the wounds. I was in the hosew	a vas t for the	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures and	1907, while five American teams showed increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago, Atmetics and New York falling of. The Chicago Nationals proved to be American League, with an average of 7,847 to a game. Cleveland was second, Washington and Detroit; Chicago, Making an average of 8,437. The New combined attendance in Boston, New	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the castern cities total of 1,497,862, while the cities total of 1,497,862, while the	a vas donmout II gam t for the wen te and Lex	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed seasons and the combined games of the National and Computed Seasons of the Seasons of	1907, while five American teams showed increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit Chicago, Mathered and New York falling of. The Chicago Nationals proved to be American League, with an average of 1,847 to a game. Cleveland was second, with an average of 2,663. The Combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided in though, when they averaged $1,193. Design the combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be American League, with an average of 2,847 to a game. Cleveland was second, with an average of 7,663. The combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be American League, with an average of 2,847 to a game. Cleveland was second, with an average of 3,663. The combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Pro	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,860,020 to the western citles of "They thought I was gone then. M	a vas donmount if all games t for the went to and Lox and Lox defeaten	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed anter careful complication; and obtained from each individual say.	1907, while five American teams showed increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit Chicago, Mathered and New York falling of. The Chicago Nationals proved to be American League, with an average of 1,847 to a game. Cleveland was second, with an average of 2,663. The Combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided in though, when they averaged $1,193. Design the combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be American League, with an average of 2,847 to a game. Cleveland was second, with an average of 7,663. The combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be American League, with an average of 2,847 to a game. Cleveland was second, with an average of 3,663. The combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Pro	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,066. The large Sunday right ear is deaf to-day and my right.	a vas donmou Il gam e It for the Wen to and Lox is seen defeated by the	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed a ter careful compilation; and obtained from each individual sty. For the first time since 1991, the	1907, while five American teams showed increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago. Atmetics and New York falling of. The great races of the two leagues. York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Wash-	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figure 1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1,	a vas
Il game t for the wen to and Lox as seen defeateg by the facon and	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed after careful compilation, and obtained from each individual by For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East	1907, while five American teams showed increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago, Atmetics and New York falling of. The great races of the two leagues were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Detroit was the best road team in the ligures of Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit,	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third.	a vas
Il game t for the went to and Lox s seen defeated by the acon and a hard	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed a ter careful compilation; and obtained from each individual sty. For the first time since 1991, the	1907, while five American teams showed increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit Chicago, Mathered and New York falling of. The Chicago Nationals proved to be American League, with an average of 1,847 to a game. Cleveland was second, with an average of 2,663. The Combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided in though, when they averaged $1,193. Design the combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be American League, with an average of 2,847 to a game. Cleveland was second, with an average of 7,663. The combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be American League, with an average of 2,847 to a game. Cleveland was second, with an average of 3,663. The combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington are provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Provided to be a combined attendance in Boston and Pro	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,860,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was a form of the control	a vas
Ill game t for the wen to and Lox is seen defeated by the facon and a hard which the	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed after careful compilation, and obtained from each individual My. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outlew their rivais. The grand total of the National League was 3,634,988.	1907, while five American teams showed increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago, Atmetics and New York falling of. The great races of the two leagues were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Detroit was the best road team in the ligures of Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit,	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American Lengue drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crown at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, to show for the only first Look the control of the state of the control of the co	a vas 10 os-vas in My gnt I'va of got the
Ill game It for the went to and Lox s seen defeated by the acon and a hard which the row mar- ie result-	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed after careful complication; and obtained from each individual by. For the first time since 1901, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,634,928, while the American League outdrew	The Chicago Nationals proved to be defined increases, Boston. St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago. Attactics and New York falling of: The great races of the two leagues are largely responsible for the increased figures. The Chicago Nationals proved to be the best drawing team on the road, making an average of $437. The New York Giants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Detroit, was the best road team in the SHOWING OF EACH CITY SHOWING OF EACH CITY	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,368. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowa at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October Sth, when the Cubs and	a vas
Ill game t for the wen to and Lex is seen defeated a by the facon and a hard which the row mar- ie result- itary In-	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed acter careful compilation and obtained from each individual by For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivais. The grand total of the National League was 3,534,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 650,971, which shows	The Chicago Nationals proved to be defined increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago, Atmetics and New York falling of. The great races of the two leagues are largely responsible for the increased figures. The Chicago Nationals proved to be the best drawing team on the road, and the local making an average of $437. The New York Giants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Detroit was the best road team in the specific was better than the combined figures of Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. AMERICAN LEAGUE.	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 8th, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate full-the count. If they want to get me again.	a vas
In game If game If for the wen the and Lox s seen defeated by the acon and a hard which the row mar- row mar- itery In- lefeat of	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed after careful compilation, and obtained from each individual My. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the National's outdrew their rivais. The grand total of the National League was 3,634,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 650,971, which shows wan increase for the old league of 897.	1907, while five American teams showed increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago, Attactics and New York falling of. The great races of the two leagues York Giants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Decreased figures. The DWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. Per Game.	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 8th, when the Cubs and Glants met, not a single estimate falling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athietics' an axe.	a vas 10 os- vas in My ght Pva of got the ain
Is game If game If for the wen the and Lox seen defeates by the acon and acon and acon and which the row mar- e result- itary in- lefeat of the St.	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed after careful compilation, and obtained from each individual My. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,634,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 660,971, which shows van increase for the old league of 897, p. 1956. The American League showed an	1907, while five American teams showed increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago, Atmetics and New York falling off. The Steat races of the two leagues where largely responsible for the increased figures. The Chicago Nationals proved to be the best drawing team on the road, and with an average of 7,063. The combined attendance in Boston, New York Glants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $,193. Detroit, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington was better than the combined figures of Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. Per Game, Chicago SS,998 S,972 New York American League, with an average of 7,847 to a game. Cleveland was sectond, with an average of 7,063. The combined attendance in Boston, New York Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington was better than the combined figures of Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Per Game, Per Game, St. 2007 New York Section of the best drawing team on the road, Total and washing an average of 8,437. The New York Showed Attendance and Washing an average of 8,437. The New York Showed Attendance and Washing an average of 8,437. The New York Showed Attendance and Washing an average of 8,437. The New York Showed Attendance and Washing an average of 8,437. The New York Showed Attendance and Washing an average of 8,437. The New York Showed Attendance and Washing an average of 8,437. The New York Showed Attendance and Washing an average of 8,437. The New York Showed Attendance and Washing an average of 8,437. The New York Showed Attendance and Washing an average of 8,437. The New York Showed Attendance and Washing	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Suuday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 3th, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate falling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athietics' grounds on October 2d, when 360 naid	a vas 10 os-vas In My gnt I'va of got the ain or
Il game If for the wen the and Lox s seen defeated by the acon and a hard which the row mar- ie result- itary in- lefeat of the St. by the	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed. 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed after careful compilation, and obtained from each individual by For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,634,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 560,971, which shows an increase for the old league of 897, p. 95. The American League showed an wancrease of 212,502 over 1997.	The Chicago Nationals proved to be defined and petroit; Chicago. Attendance, was the best drawing team on the road, and, Washington and Detroit; Chicago. Attendance and New York falling of. The great races of the two leagues are largely responsible for the increased figures. The Chicago Nationals proved to be the best drawing team on the road, and with an average of 7,663. The combined attendance in Boston, New York giants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Detroit was the best road team in the figures of Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. Attendance Per Game. Chicago St. Louis 58,595 New York Signor 13,560 St. Louis 58,595 New York Signor 13,560 St. Louis 68,595 Signor Chicago 13,560 St. Louis 68,595 Signor Chicago 13,560 The Chicago Nationals proved to be the best road, attendance in Boston, New York Signor American League, with an average of 7,663. The combined attendance in Boston, New York Boroklyn, Philadelphia and Washington was better than the combined figures of Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, Total Average Attendance. Per Game. St. Louis 68,595 New York Signor 13,560 St. Louis 68,595 Signor Chicago 13,560 The Chicago Nationals proved to be American League, with an average of 7,663. The combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington and Everage of 7,663. The combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington and Everage of 7,663. The combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington and Everage of 7,663. The combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington and Verage of 8,817 to a game. Cleveland was sectored attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington and Verage on American League, with an average of 7,663. The combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington and Park York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington and Park York, Brooklyn, Philade	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,958. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 8th, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate failing below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athietics grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd to have the paid to see the game. The largest crowd to have the property of the season was at the Athietics grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd to have the property of the	a vas 10 os-vas In My gnt I'va of got the ain or
In game If game If for the wen the and Lox s seen defeates by the acon and a hard which the row mar- row mar- row mar- the result- ttary In- lefeat of the St. by the su Sidney	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed after careful compilation, and obtained from each individual My. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,634,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 660,971, which shows van increase for the old league of 897, pl 95. The American League showed an wincrease of 212,502 ove 1997. New York was the National's bright	The Chicago Nationals proved to be discretized for the increases for the wilder of the increases for the wilder of the increased figures. The great races of the two leagues with an average of 8.437. The New York falling of though, when they averaged $192. Detroit was the best road team in the lighter of the increased figures. Total Average Attendance. Chicago Nationals proved to be damed to be discretized from the road, and the provided attendance in Boston, New York Giants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $192. Detroit was the best road team in the lighter of Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Per Game, Chicago Attendance. Per Game, Chicago Giants and Carlotte of the combined figures of Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, St. Louis, Carlotte of Chicago St. Louis and Chicago St. Louis an	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Stunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 8th, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate falling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athletics grounds on October 2d, when 360 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athletics' grounds during; the	a vas 10 os-vas In My gnt I'va of got the ain or
Il game If for the wen the and Lox s seen defeated by the acon and a hard which the row mar- e result- itary in- lefeat of the St. by the sun Sidney	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed acter careful compilation and obtained from each individual by For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivais. The grand total of the National League was 3,534,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 650,971, which shows the National by 650,971, which shows an increase for the old league of 897, pl 95. The American League showed an wincrease of 212,562 over 1977, but New York was the National's bright papet, and careful estimates place the	The Chicago Nationals proved to be discretized increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago. Attactics and New York failing of: The great races of the two leagues with an average of 8.437. The New York glants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Decreased figures. Total Average Attendance Total Average Attendance Per Game, Chicago St. Louis, G85,996 St. Louis, G85,996 St. Tothicago G85,996	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Stunday attendance increases the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Stunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 3th, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate falling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athietics grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athietics' grounds durin; the season was on May 19th, when 20,181	a vas 10 os-vas In My gnt I'va of got the ain or
Ill game it for the went to and Lox seen defeated by the acon and a hard which the row mar- row mar- row mar- titary in- tefeat of the St. by the su. Sidney ame with the team	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed after careful compilation, and obtained from each individual My. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the National's outdrew their rivais. The grand total of the National League was 3,634,938, while the American League outdrew the National by 650,971, which shows an increase for the old league of $87, ply 5. The American League showed an whorease of 212,862 over 1997. In New York was the National's bright pajot, and careful estimates place the Olswies at 910,009, an average of 13,600	The Chicago Nationals proved to be defined and petroit, Chicago. Attendance, and New York falling of: The great races of the two leagues with an average of $437. The New York giants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Detroit was the best road team in the strong was better than the combined attendance in Boston, New York giants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Detroit was the best road team in the strong was better than the combined attendance in Boston, New York grooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington and Eagues of Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Total Average Attendance. Per Game. Chicago Attendance Per Game. St. Louis 688,941 8,717 Chicago 685,252 9,304 Boston 473,045 6,758 Philadelphia 429,059 5,373 Athletics 456,952 6,200 Cinelinati 529,200 5,545 Detroit 468,159 6,321 Pittsburg 322,443 5,483 Cleveland 422,282 5,531 St. Louis 328,600 14,400	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 8th, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate fulling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athletics grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athletics' grounds durin; the season was on May 19th, when 20,151 saw Waddell pitch for St. Louis. The	a vas 10 os-vas in My gnt I'va of got the ain or
In game If game If for the wen to and Lox seen defeateg by the acon and a hard which the row mar- row mar- row mar- titary in- lefeat of the St. by the sun Sidney ame with y team	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed acter careful compliation and obtained from each individual My. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,534,988, while the American League was 3,534,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 659,971, which shows van increase for the old league of 897, 195. The American League showed an wincrease of 212,502 over 1907, but New York was the National's bright parot, and careful estimates place the possession of 13,000.	The Chicago Nationals proved to be defined and petroit in the best drawing team on the road, and, Washington and Detroit Chicago. Attuetics and New York falling of. The great races of the two leagues York Giants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Detroit was the best road team in the ligures of Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. Total Average Attendance. St. Louis. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. St. Louis. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. St. Louis. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. St. Louis. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. St. Louis. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. St. Louis. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. St. Louis. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. St. Louis. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance Per Game. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance Per Game. SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance Per Game. SHOWING OF EACH CITY Total Average Attendance Per Game. SHOWING OF EACH CITY Total Average Attendance Per Game. SHOWING OF EACH CITY Total Average Attendance Per Game. SHOWING OF EACH CITY Total Average Attendance Per Game. SHOWING OF EACH CITY Total Average Attendance Per Game. SHOWING OF EACH CITY Total Av	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Stunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 8th, when the Cubs and Glants met, not a single estimate falling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athletics grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athletics' grounds during; the season was on May 19th, when 20,161 saw Waddell pitch for St. Louis. The largest crowd at the Philles' grounds	a vas vas vas vas vas in My gnt Va of got the ain or ans hts
Il game It for the wen li- and Lex wen li- and Lex s seen defeated by th- accon and a hard which the row mar- e result- itary in- lefeat of the St. by the sus Sidney ame with y team, astly, :5	The greatest baseball season in the mistory of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed acter careful compliation and obtained from each individual try. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,634,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 650,971, which shows with National's bright payot, and careful estimates place the polycures at 910,000, an average of 13,000 are game, or one-fourth of the total the league. Chicago was second.	The Chicago Nationals proved to be defined and petroit; Chicago, attendance, while five American League, with an average of fast on the post of the best drawing team on the road, making an average of $437. The New York falling off. The great races of the two leagues with an average of $437. The New York Giants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Detroit was the best road team in the road, with an average of $437. The New York Giants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Detroit was the best road team in the road, with an average of $437. The New York Giants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Detroit was the best road team in the road, with an average of $437. The New York Giants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Detroit was better than the combined figures of Chicago, $1000 was better than the combined figures of Chicago, $1000 was better than the combined figures of Chicago, $1000 was better than the combined figures of Chicago, $1000 was better than the combined figures of Chicago, $1000 was better than the combined figures of Chicago, $1000 was better than the combined figures of Chicago, $1000 was better than the combined figures of Chicago, $1000 was better than the combined figures of Chicago, $1000 was better than the combined figures of Chicago, $1000 was better than the combined figures of Chicago, $1000 was better than the combined figures of Chicago, $1000 was better than the combined was sectored with an average of $1000 was better than the combined was averaged $1000 was better than the combined was better than the combined was averaged $1000 was better than the combined was better than the combined was averaged $1000 was better than the combined was a	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,856,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,368. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 8th, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate falling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athletics grounds on October 2d, when 360 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athletics' grounds on October 2d, when 360 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athletics' grounds on May 19th, when 20th 19th 19th 19th 19th 19th 19th 19th 19	a vas
In game If game If for the wen the and Lox is seen defeated by the accon and a hard which the row mar- row mar- row mar- itary In- lefeat of the St. by the ame with y team, easily, is	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed after careful compilation, and obtained from each individual by For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,634,988, while the American League outdrew the National begue as the National begue of 897,-1955. The American League showed an wincrease of 212,502 over 1997. In New York was the National's bright payot, and careful estimates place the 10 sures at 919,009, an average of 13,090 are game, or one-fourth of the total the league. Chicago was second. The 165,325, an average of 9,504 to a	The Chicago Nationals proved to be defined and petroit; Chicago. Attendance and New York falling of the increased figures. The great races of the two leagues when they averaged $.193. Detroit was the best road team in the local figures of Chicago, St. Louis, Cleveland was seen and the provided attendance in Boston, New York glaints were not far behind, though, when they averaged $.193. Detroit was the best road team in the liquid was better than the combined attendance in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Washington was better than the combined figures of Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Total Average Attendance. Per Game. Attendance. Per Game. Chicago Attendance Per Game. St. Louis 683.947 8.717 Chicago 685.255 9.504 Boston 473.948 6.758 Philadelphia 429.050 5.575 Boston 473.948 6.758 Philadelphia 299.200 5.565 Detroit 465.199 6.321 Pittsburg 322.443 5.463 Detroit 465.199 6.321 Pittsburg 322.443 5.463 New York 365.500 4.849 Brooklyn 276.600 3.394 Washington 284.252 3.902 Boston 276.600 3.904 Washington 384.252 3.902 Boston 276.600 3.904 Washington 384.252 3.902 Boston 276.600 3.904 Washington 386.500 4.849 Brooklyn 276.600 3.904	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,268. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowa at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October Sth, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate failing below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athletics' grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athletics' grounds during the season was on May 19th, when 20,181 saw Waddell pitch for St. Louis. The largest crowd at the Philles' grounds during the season was on August 8th, when 22,377 persons saw Pittsburg	a vas vas vas vas vas in My gnt Va of got the ain or ans hts
Il game if for the wen it and Lox seen defeated by the accon and a hard which there we market resultitary intefeat of the St. by the sun Sidney ame with y team, sasily, is lowers of result of the st.	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed acter careful compliation and obtained from each individual My. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,534,988, while the American League was 3,534,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 659,971, which shows van increase for the old league of 897,195. The American League showed an wincrease of 212,592 over 1997, but New York was the National's bright parot, and careful estimates place the possession of the league. Chicago was second, the 190 square of 65,325, an average of 9,554 to a will be proposed to a person of the possession of the league. Chicago was second.	The Chicago Nationals proved to be discretized for the interest of the two leagues. The Showlng of Each CITY The great races of the two leagues are largely responsible for the interest of figures. Total Average Attendance Per Game. Chicago Attendance Per Game. Chicago St. Louis Attendance Per Game. Chicago Attendance Atten	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,856,020 to the western cities' total of 1,774,968. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October Sth, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate falling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athietics' grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athietics' grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athietics' grounds durin; the season was on May 19th, when 20,16it saw Waddell pitch for St. Jouis. The largest crowd at the Phi lies' grounds during the season was on August Sth, when 22,377 persons saw Pittsburg play. The Phillies' smallest crowd was	a vas vas vas vas vas in My gnt Va of got the ain or ans hts
Il game If for the wen is and Lex seen defeated by the accon and a hard which the row mar- ie result- itary in- lefeat of the St. by the ame with y team, assity, i5 lowers of cresult of orgetown	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed acter careful compliation and obtained from each individual try. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivais. The grand total of the National League was 3,634,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 650,971, which shows the National by 650,971, which shows the National by 650,971, which shows the National's bright payot, and careful estimates place the players at 910,000, an average of 13,000 are game, or one-fourth of the total the league. Chicago was second. With 655,325, an average of 9,504 to a game, or one-fourth of the total the league. Chicago was second. With 655,325, an average of 9,504 to a game, or one-fourth of the total the league. Chicago was second. With 655,325, an average of 9,504 to a game, or one-fourth of the total the league. Chicago was second. With 650,325, an average of 9,504 to a chicago white Sox led the	The Chicago Nationals proved to be definered to the best drawing team on the road, making an average of $.437. The New York falling of the largely responsible for the increased figures. Total Average Attendance Total Average Attendance Per Game, St. Louis, G83.096 S.572 New York Attendance G85.255 9.304 American League, with an average of 1,847 to a game. Cleveland was second, with an average of 1,633. The making an average of $.437. The New York Giants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $.193. Detroit, was the best road team in the figures of Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, Chicago Attendance. Per Game, Attendance Per Game, St. Louis G83.096 8.572 New York Attendance Per Game, Attendance G85.255 9.304 Attendance G85.025 6.200 Cinemati 429.600 65.465 Detroit 456.199 6.311 Pittsburg 324.443 5.468 Cleveland 422.282 5.531 St. Louis 328.000 4.310 New York 36.550 4.849 Brooklyn 256.500 2.334 Washington 294.522 3.962 Boston 258.750 3.964 Attendance in 1907. 3.338,964 Attendance in 1907. 2.737.738 Attendance in 1906. 2.938.006 Attendance in 1907. 2.737.738 Attendance in 1906. 2.938.007	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,958. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 8th, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate falling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athietics grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athietics grounds during the season was on May 19th, when 20,161 saw Waddell pitch for St. Luis. The largest crowd at the Phillies' grounds during the season was on August 8th, when 22,377 persons saw Pittsburg play. The Phillies' smallest crowd was on October 6th, when $42 persons with the properties of the properties of the control of the properties of the properties of the lightweigh the properties of the lightwe	a sas to os-vas in My gnt Cva of got the ain or ans hip dominous ill game it for the wen its and Lox as seen defeated in by the facon and as hard which the row mar- r	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed. 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed after careful compilation, and obtained from each individual by For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals of the National League was 3,634,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 560,971, which shows an increase for the old league of 897, pp 95. The American League showed an wincrease of 212,620 over 1997, but New York was the National's bright papet, and careful estimates place the place and careful estimates place the place and careful estimates place the place of 20,000, an average of 13,000 and careful estimates place the place of control of the total of the league. Chicago was second to 665,325, an average of 9,504 to a gain sie; Philadelphia being third, with till total of 420,660. The Chicago White Sox led the combined and the chicago was second to the chicago was second.	The Chicago Nationals proved to be discretized increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago. Attactics and New York falling of: The great races of the two leagues where largely responsible for the increased figures. Total Average Attendance in Boston, New York Gints were not far behind, though, when they averaged $193. Detroit was the best road team in the ligures of Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. Per Game, Chicago $38,996 8.972 New York Attendance. St. Louis 618,947 8.717 Chicago 685.295 9.596 Boston 473,045 6.738 Philadelphia 429,069 $5.73 Attletdance $45,199 6.321 Pittsburg 322,445 5.643 New York 36,590 6.321 Pittsburg 322,445 5.643 New York 36,590 4.849 Brooklyn 228,600 4.910 New York 36,590 4.849 Brooklyn 228,600 4.910 New York 36,590 5.531 St. Louis 228,600 4.910 New York 36,590 5.532 St. Louis 228,600 4.910 New York 36,590 5.533 St. Louis 228,600 3.994 New York 36,590 5.533 St. Louis 298,694 Attendance in 1995 2.781,333 Attendance in 1995 2.781,333 Attendance in 1995 2.781,333	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the castern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Studday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 8th, when the Cubs and Glants met, not a single estimate falling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athietics' grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athietics' grounds during; the season was on May 19th, when 20,181 saw Waddell pitch for St. Louis. The largest crowd at the Philles' grounds during the season was on August 8th, when 22,377 persons saw Pittsburg play. The Phillies' smallest crowd was on October 6th, when 842 persons witnessed the Brooklyn game.	as a
dominous Ill game, It for the wen li- and Lext is seen defeated by th- accon and a hard which the row mar- he result- itizry in- hefeat of the St. hy the cus Sidney ame with hy team, peasily, i5 lowers of result of orgetown the correction of the during	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures arg computed acter careful compliation and obtained from each individual My. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,534,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 659,971, which shows wan increase for the old league of 897, pp. 195. The American League showed an wincrease of 212,502 over 1907, but New York was the National's bright payot, and careful estimates place the property of the league. Chicago was second, the 1965,325, an average of 9,504 to a sain Sie; Philadelphia being third, with a trillotal of 420,660. The he Chicago White Sox led the Amisterican League, with a grand total control of the Chicago White Sox led the Amisterican League, with a grand total control of the Chicago White Sox led the Amisterican League, with a grand total control of the Manual Chicago was second.	The Chicago Nationals proved to be a fine fire American teams showed increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago, Attendance in 1967. AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance in 1965. AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance in 1966. ANATIONAL LEAGUE. NATIONAL LEAGUE. NATIONAL LEAGUE. NATIONAL LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance in 1967. Average Attendance in 1967. Attendance in 1966. 3.338/464 Attendance in 1966. 3.438/459 Attendance in 1966. 3.747470	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,856,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 8th, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate failing below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athletics grounds on October 2d, when 360 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athletics' grounds on October 2d, when 360 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athletics' grounds on May 19th, when 20,18t saw Waddell pitch for St. Louis. The largest crowd at the Philles' grounds during the season was on August 8th, when 22,377 persons saw Pittsburg play. The Phillies' smallest crowd was on October 6th, when 842 persons witnessed the Brooklyn game. The most remarkable feature during The testimony of hundreds whe have been cured is our warrant for advising	a solution of the solution of dominous Ill game, It for the wen li- and Lext is seen defeated by th- accon and a hard which the row mar- he result- itizry in- hefeat of the St. hy the cus Sidney ame with hy team, peasily, i5 lowers of result of orgetown the correction of the during	The greatest baseball season in the shistory of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed acter careful compliation and obtained from each individual try. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,634,988, while the American League outdrew the National League was 3,634,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 650,971, which shows an increase for the old league of 897, pl 95. The American League showed an wincrease of 212,602 over 1997, but New York was the National's bright payor, and careful estimates place the players at 910,000, an average of 13,000 and the league. Chicago was second, with 655,325, an average of 9,504 to a grang see: Philadelphia being third, with till he Chicago White Sox led the Amssignican league, with a grand total of 410,560, while St. Louis was second, the a grand total of 618,947, this be-	The Chicago Nationals proved to be discretized increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago. Attactics and New York falling of: The great races of the two leagues when they average of $.437. The New York glants were not far behind, though, when they averaged $.193. Detroit was the best road team in the ligitures. Chicago Attendance Per Game, Attendance	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,858. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 8th, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate fulling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athietics grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athietics' grounds durin; the season was on May 19th, when 20,131 saw Waddell pitch for St. Louis. The largest crowd at the Philles' grounds during the season was on August 8th, when 22,377 persons saw Pittsburg play. The Phillies' smallest crowd was on October 6th, when 842 persons witnessed the Brooklyn game. The most remarkable feature during the season was the tremendous turning the season wa	a ras ras ras ras ras ras ras ras ras ra dominous till game, t for the wen le and Lox is seen defeated by the accon and a hard which the row mar- ne result- ititary in- lefeat of t the St. by the cu. Sidney ame with any team, castly, i5 lowers of result of rougetown tural and th during air. The only able	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed after careful compilation, and obtained from each individual by For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,634,988, while the American League outdrew the National League of 897, p195. The American League showed an uncrease for the old league of 897, p195. The American League showed an wincrease of 212,602 ove 1997. his New York was the National's bright payot, and careful estimates place the possures at $10,000, an average of 13,000 are game, or one-fourth of the total of the league. Chicago was second, the 665,325, an average of 9,504 to a trill total of 420,660. The he Chicago White Sox led the American League, with a grand total of 618,347, this benefit on the child of 618,347, this benefit of grand total of 618,347, this benefit on grand total of 618,347, this benefit of grand total	The Chicago Nationals proved to be American League, with an average of increases, Boston. St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago. Attendance in 1965. Attendance in 1965. American League, with an average of f.847. The New York falling of the best drawing team on the road, making an average of 8.437. The New York falling of the increased figures. The Chicago Nationals proved to be the best drawing team on the road, making an average of 8.437. The New York falling of the increased figures. Total Average Attendance in 1965. AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. Per Game, Attendance. Per Game, Attendance. Per Game, St. Louis Gis. St. St. St. St. St. St. St. St. St. St	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the castern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities total of 1,497,862, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,268. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October Sth, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate falling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athietics' grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athietics' grounds during; the season was on May 19th, when 26,161 saw Waddell pitch for St. Louis. The largest crowd at the Philles' grounds during the season was on May 19th, when 20,161 saw Waddell pitch for St. Louis. The largest crowd at the Philles' grounds during the season was on August 8th, when 22,377 persons saw Pittsburg play. The Phillies' smallest crowd was on October 6th, when 842 persons witnessed the Brooklyn game. The most remarkable feature during the season, was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played on the twenty-two games played of the season was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played of the season was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played of the season was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played of the season was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played of the season was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played of the season was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games and the played of the season was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played of the season was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played of the season was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played of the season was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played of the season was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played of	a solution of the solution of domonical state of the St. by the same with any team, as hard which the row marie resultitizery indefent of the St. by the en Sidney team, as ally, is lowers of result of result of the St. by the en Sidney team, with any team, as ally, is lowers of result of result of result of the st. by the en Sidney that the same with any team, as ally, is lowers of result of result of result of the st. by the same with a same with a same with the same with the same with the same same same same same same same sam	The greatest baseball season in the shistory of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed acter careful compliation and obtained from each individual try. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,634,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 650,971, which shows with National's pige of 12,000 and increase of 212,602 over 1997. In New York was the National's bright payor, and careful estimates place the possible of the 1,012 person of 12,000, and are supported by the 1,012 person of 1,000 and 1,000 person of 1,	The Chicago Nationals proved to be ed increases, Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit Chicago Attaictes and New York falling of The great races of the two leagues with an average of $.437. The New York and New York falling of Though, when they averaged $.193. Detroit was the best road team in the SHOWING OF EACH CITY AMERICAN LEAGUE. Total Average Attendance. Chicago Attendance GS.666 $.572 New York Attendance in 1905 $.535. 99.90 $.536 Detroit $.537. 99.90	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,856,020 to the western citles total of 1,774,968. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 8th, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate failing below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athletics grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athletics grounds on May 19th, when 26,161 saw Waddell pitch for St. Units. The largest crowd at the Philles' grounds during the season was on August 8th, when 22,377 persons saw Pittsburg play. The Phillies' smallest crowd was on October 6th, when 842 persons witnessed the Brooklyn game. The most remarkable feature during the season was on was the tremendous turnout at the twenty-two games played between the Giants and the Cubs. In	as to os- os- os- os- os- os- os- os- os- os
domonical state of the state of	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed. 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed acter careful compilation and obtained from each individual ity. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,534,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 660,971, which shows the National by 660,971, which shows the National by 660,971, which shows the National's bright pajot, and careful estimates place the Discurse at 910,000, an average of 13,000 per game, or one-fourth of the total of the league. Chicago was second. Will be 165,325, an average of 9,504 to a sanishe: Philadelphia being third, with a trill of the league, with a grand total of 420,650. The action of the St. Louis was second. Will a grand total of 420,650. The argument of the St. Louis was second. Will a grand total of 618,947, this being tritte greatest season the Browns over 18 had. The at Athletics' figures show 34,402 more	The Chicago Nationals proved to be ed increases Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago Catand, Washington and Detroit; Chicago Catanda	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the castern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,268. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October Sth, when the Clubs and Giants met, not a single estimate failing below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athietics' grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athietics' grounds during the season was on May 19th, when 20,161 saw Waddell pitch for St. Louis. The largest crowd at the Philles' grounds during the season was on August 8th, when 22,377 persons saw Pittsburg play. The Phillies' smallest crowd was on October 6th, when $42 persons witnessed the Brooklyn game. The most remarkable feature during the season was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played between the Giants and the Cubs. In the letween games 250,000 persons saw the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played between the Giants and the Cubs. In the letven games 250,000 persons saw the	as to os- os- os- os- os- os- os- os- os- os
Ill game it for the wen it and Lox is seen defeated by the accon and a hard which the row mar- ie result- itary in- lefeat of the St. by the en Sidney ame with y team, pastly, i5 lowers of orgetown ural and the during air. The only able inst their	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed. 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed acter careful compilation and obtained from each individual ity. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,534,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 660,971, which shows the National by 660,971, which shows the National by 660,971, which shows the National's bright pajot, and careful estimates place the Discurse at 910,000, an average of 13,000 per game, or one-fourth of the total of the league. Chicago was second. Will be 165,325, an average of 9,504 to a sanishe: Philadelphia being third, with a trill of the league, with a grand total of 420,650. The action of the St. Louis was second. Will a grand total of 420,650. The argument of the St. Louis was second. Will a grand total of 618,947, this being tritte greatest season the Browns over 18 had. The at Athletics' figures show 34,402 more	The Chicago Nationals proved to be ed increases Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago Catand, Washington and Detroit; Chicago Catanda	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the castern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,958. The large Studdy attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October Sth, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate falling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athietics' grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athietics' grounds during; the season was on May 19th, when 26,161 saw Waddell pitch for St. Louis. The largest crowd at the Phillies' grounds during the season was on August 8th, when 22,377 persons saw Pittsburg play. The Phillies' smallest crowd was on October 6th, when 842 persons witnessed the Brooklyn game. The most remarkable feature during the season, was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played between the Giants and the Cubs. In eleven games 250,000 persons saw the Cubs at the Polo Grounds, New York. Cubs at the Polo Grounds, New York.	a solution of the solution of
domonical state of the state of	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed. 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed acter careful compilation and obtained from each individual ity. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,534,988, while the American League outdrew the National by 660,971, which shows the National by 660,971, which shows the National by 660,971, which shows the National's bright pajot, and careful estimates place the Discurse at 910,000, an average of 13,000 per game, or one-fourth of the total of the league. Chicago was second. Will be 165,325, an average of 9,504 to a sanishe: Philadelphia being third, with a trill of the league, with a grand total of 420,650. The action of the St. Louis was second. Will a grand total of 420,650. The argument of the St. Louis was second. Will a grand total of 618,947, this being tritte greatest season the Browns over 18 had. The at Athletics' figures show 34,402 more	The Chicago Nationals proved to be ed increases Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago Catand, Washington and Detroit; Chicago Catanda	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,850,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,858. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 8th, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate falling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athietics grounds on October 2d, when 260 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athietics grounds during the season was on May 19th, when 20,161 saw Waddell pitch for St. Louis. The largest crowd at the Philles' grounds during the season was on August 8th, when 22,377 persons saw Pittsburg play. The Phillies' smallest crowd was on October 6th, when 842 persons witnessed tie Brooklyn game. The most remarkable feature during the season was the tremendous turnous at the twenty-two games played between the Giants and the Cubs. In 12 leeven games 250,000 persons saw the Cubs at the Polo Grounds, New York, while in eleven games at Chicago, 185.	a ras ras ras ras ras ras ras ras ras ra
I game for the went to seen defeated by the con and a hard hich the by the seen of the St. hy the usidney increase of the St. hy the usidney increase of the st. hy the cast of the st. hy the increase of the st. hy the increase of the st. Sidney were of the st. hy the increase of the st. hy the increase of the st. hy the increase of the st. hy the st.	The greatest baseball season in the history of the major leagues has just closed, 7,246,354 persons seeing the combined games of the National and American Leagues. These figures are computed acter careful compliation and obtained from each individual My. For the first time since 1991, the first year of the invasion of the East by the American League, the Nationals outdrew their rivals. The grand total of the National League was 3,534,938, while the American League was 3,534,938, while the American League outdrew the National League was 3,534,938, while the American League outdrew the National by 650,971, which shows van increase for the old league of 897, 195. The American League showed an wincrease of 212,502 over 1997, but New York was the National's bright parot, and careful estimates place the 10 square of 9,504 to a wincrease of 212,602 over 1997, but New York was the National's bright parot, and careful estimates place the 10 square of 9,504 to a wincrease of 212,602 over 1997, but New York was the National's bright the league. Chicago was second, the league. Chicago was second. The league of 420,660. The he Chicago White Sox led the Amasierican league, with a grand total of ellivision of white St. Louis was second. The league of 18,947, this being urit the greatest season the Browns ever 8, had.	The Chicago Nationals proved to be ed increases Boston, St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and Detroit; Chicago Catand, Washington and Detroit; Chicago Catanda	Cincinnati, Cleveland and Pittsburg. The western clubs of the American League drew 2,113,504 to the eastern cities total of 1,497,852, while the eastern cities of the National League drew 1,856,020 to the western cities total of 1,774,968. The large Sunday attendance increases the western figures at least one-third. The largest crowd at a single game was at the Polo Grounds, New York, on October 3th, when the Cubs and Giants met, not a single estimate falling below 35,000. The smallest crowd of the season was at the Athletics grounds on October 2d, when 360 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athletics' grounds on October 2d, when 360 paid to see the game. The largest crowd at the Athletics' grounds on October 3t, by the season was on August 8th, when 22,377 persons saw Pittsburg play. The Phillies' smallest crowd was on October 6th, when 842 persons witnessed the Brooklyn game. The most remarkable feature during the season, was the tremendous turnouts at the twenty-two games played between the Giants and the Cubs In eleven games 250,000 persons saw the Cubs at the Polo Grounds, New York, at all Druggists, or 'Phone 523.	as ras to

Chicago New York

St. Louis.... Philadelphia

No Remedy of Ordinary Merit Could Ever Have Received Indorsations From Men Li_ke These.

... Bright's Disease, Albuminuria

Virginia.

E. H. Pratt, A. M., M. D., Pho. L.D., Prof. Orificial Surgery to the Chicago Homæpathic will Hospital.

C. W. P. Brock, W. D., Ex-Pres. Pes National Assn. Railvay Surgeons and Member Medical of Society of Va.

J. T. Davidson, M. D., Ex-Pres. can New Orleans Surgical and Medical Assn.

Robert Bartholow, M. D. FOTHER M. A., LL.D., Prof. Materia Medica and General Williams of College, Philadelphia. By James L. Cabell, M. D., A. L. W., LL.D., former Prof. of Physiology and Surgery in the Wedical Dept. of the University of Va., and Pres. of the 1st Lational Board of Health. Horatlo C. Wood, M. D., Strormer Prof. of Materia Medica, etc., in the Medical Do. 15t, of the University of Pa. Chas. B. Nancrede, M. D., Prof. of Surgery, Medical Dept. of the University of Michael Medical Medical Medical College of the Physicians and Surgeons, New York.

A. Alexander Smith, M. Della Prof. of Practice of Medicine and Clinical Medicine, Bell wire Medical College, N. Y.

Medical testimonials mailed.
For sale by the general drug and mineral

LITHIA

Alfred L. Loomis, M. D. Experiment Prof. Pathology and the Practice of Medicine and the Medical Dept. of the University of New York.

Wm. A. Hammond, M. VA.J., Surgeon-General (retired)
U. S. Army, and former Files of of Diseases of the Mind and Nervous System in the Directiversity of New York.

Geo. Haisted Boyland, A. First., M. D., Doctor of Medicine of the Faculty of Paris, another former Prof. of Surgery in Baltimore Medical College.

Wm. B. Towles, M. D., formuser Prof. of Anatomy and Materia Medica in the Medical L. Riept. in the University of Virginia.

Dr. A. Gabriel Pouchet, P. B. of Pharmacology and lateria Medica of the Faculty of difference of Paris.

1. T. LeBlanchard, M. D., Egolof. of Montreal Clinic, M. SN. V. II

SM., SN., V. U.

James K. Crook, A. M., M. O. P., Prof. Clinical Medical Sense.

Medical School.

Jos. Holt, M. D., Ex-Preside Board of Health, etc.

M. A., LLD., Prof.

The completeness of the athlette other Eastern collegs, except Harvard, there was to be no rowing outlit the was constructed to the construction of two and adverse to some of two and and the search of two and adverse to some of two and and the search of two and the search of the stadium makes to the stadium states the search of the stadium states the state of the stadium states the state of the stadium states that the cross-country men are worter than the state different to the state of the states that the cross-country men are worter to state the state of the states that the cross-country men are worter to state the state of the states that the cross-country men are worter to state the state of the states that the state of the states that the state of the states that the cross-country men are worter to state the state of the states that the state

WHAT SPORT COSTS BIG COLLEGES Last night at the Hotel Pontichartrain by a committee of citizens. Former Mayor William C. Naybury was toast-master and Sam Thompson and Charles

Academy of Music TO-NIGHT

Seats may be reserved by 'phone (3188), tickets to be called for to-night at box office.

BUFFALO LITHIA SPRINGS WATER C SPRINGS, VIRGINIA